Raymond can go the distance

Still Believing 1.22 Hereford

First in 2018 and second in 2019, this nice prize has surely always been on the radar for the 12-year-old. She won over course and distance last time yet runs off a lower mark than for either of her previous efforts in this.

Windsor Avenue 1.50 Cheltenham

Brian Ellison's eight-year-old looks to be on a decent mark based on at least a couple of his starts. His trainer has a 28 per cent strike-rate with his handicap debutants.

Raymond Tusk 2.20 Newcastle

Raymond Tusk excelled in winning this in 2019 and, after a low-key year, he could be ready to strike again. He couldn't lay a glove on a progressive rival over 1m4f last time, but wants this longer trip.
