Peace to prosper once again

Twilight Heir 2.00 Lingfield

His three opponents have won their last seven races between them, but Michael Bell's three-year-old may provide some value. The yard are 22 per cent with first-time geldings and 16 per cent (+£26.71) with handicap debutants.

Noble Peace 2.35 Lingfield

Three of Simon Pearce's last four runners have won, including this one, and he has a 30 per cent strike-rate at Lingfield. This one is up in grade today, but was easy to back on his winning return and there could be more to come.

Pactolus 7.45 Wolverhampton

It is two years since the ten-year-old notched the last of his four course-and-distance wins, but he has shown signs of a return to form. He is 15lb lower than when narrowly beaten the last time he ran here just over a year ago.
